du Pont Family Tree

Note: This is a partial family tree. Not all family members are listed

Longwood Gardens History 1700 - 1930

1682 William Penn established the colony known as the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

1682

English Quaker and landowner George Peirce cleared the land and built the original core of the brick farmhouse.

1730

Great grandsons and twin brothers Joshua and Samuel Peirce began collecting trees and founded the arboretum.

1798

George Washington Peirce opened the arboretum to the public and called it Peirce's Park.

1850

Pierre du Pont purchased the 200 acre farm with the arboretum, in order to "save the trees."

1906

Pierre du Pont designed and installed his first project, the Flower Garden Walk.

1907

Pierre designed and installed the square fountain and compartment gardens

1908

Longwood Gardens History 1700 - 1930

Large addition is added on the north end of the original house with the conservatory construction connecting the old and new sections.

1914

The debut of the Open Air Theatre, and Pierre and Alice's famous Garden Party.

1920

Completion of Pierre du Pont's most ambitious project, the Conservatory

Inspired by the Villa Gamberaia in Florence Italy, Pierre du Pont designed and constructed the Italian Water Garden

1924 - 27

Renovations at the Open Air Theatre included installing colored lights around the fountain jets.

1930

Completion of Pierre du Pont's last major project, the Main Fountain Garden.
